If your pets are not spayed or neutered, we will need to schedule surgery (at low or even NO cost to you) to participate in the Pet Food Pantry program. We want to help you keep your pet healthy and be part of the solution to the pet over-population problem.

I understand if my pet(s) is not spayed or neutered, I must speak with RJ Owens, Director of Pet Allies to schedule a time for the surgery before participating in the Pet Allies Pet Food Pantry Program again after today's date.

Our mission is to stop pet over-population through non-lethal means.

What does that mean? Pet Allies wants to make our community a better place by saving the lives of animals that enter local shelters. Pet Allies does this by operating a no kill shelter in the City of Show Low and by offering deeply discounted and free spay and neuter services at its clinic in Show Low.
